PROPERTY HIGHLIGHTS

Attractive Lease Structure: Brand-new 2026 Absolute Net lease commencing ±9/1/2026 with a 20-year initial term, three (3) additional 5-year renewal options, and 10% rent increases every five years, providing investors with long-term income stability, steady NOI growth, and minimal landlord responsibilities.

Leading Early Childhood Education Provider: The Goddard School is nationally recognized as the premier provider of early childhood education. In 2023, it was also distinguished as a top Recession-Proof Franchise, highlighting its stability and reliability in challenging economic times.

State-of-the-Art Construction: 2026 construction featuring state-of-the-art classrooms, modern amenities, and top-tier finishes designed to support a premier early childhood education environment.

Affluent Demographics: A 5-mile population density of ±78,000 people and an average household income of $108,093 supports strong demand for quality childcare services.

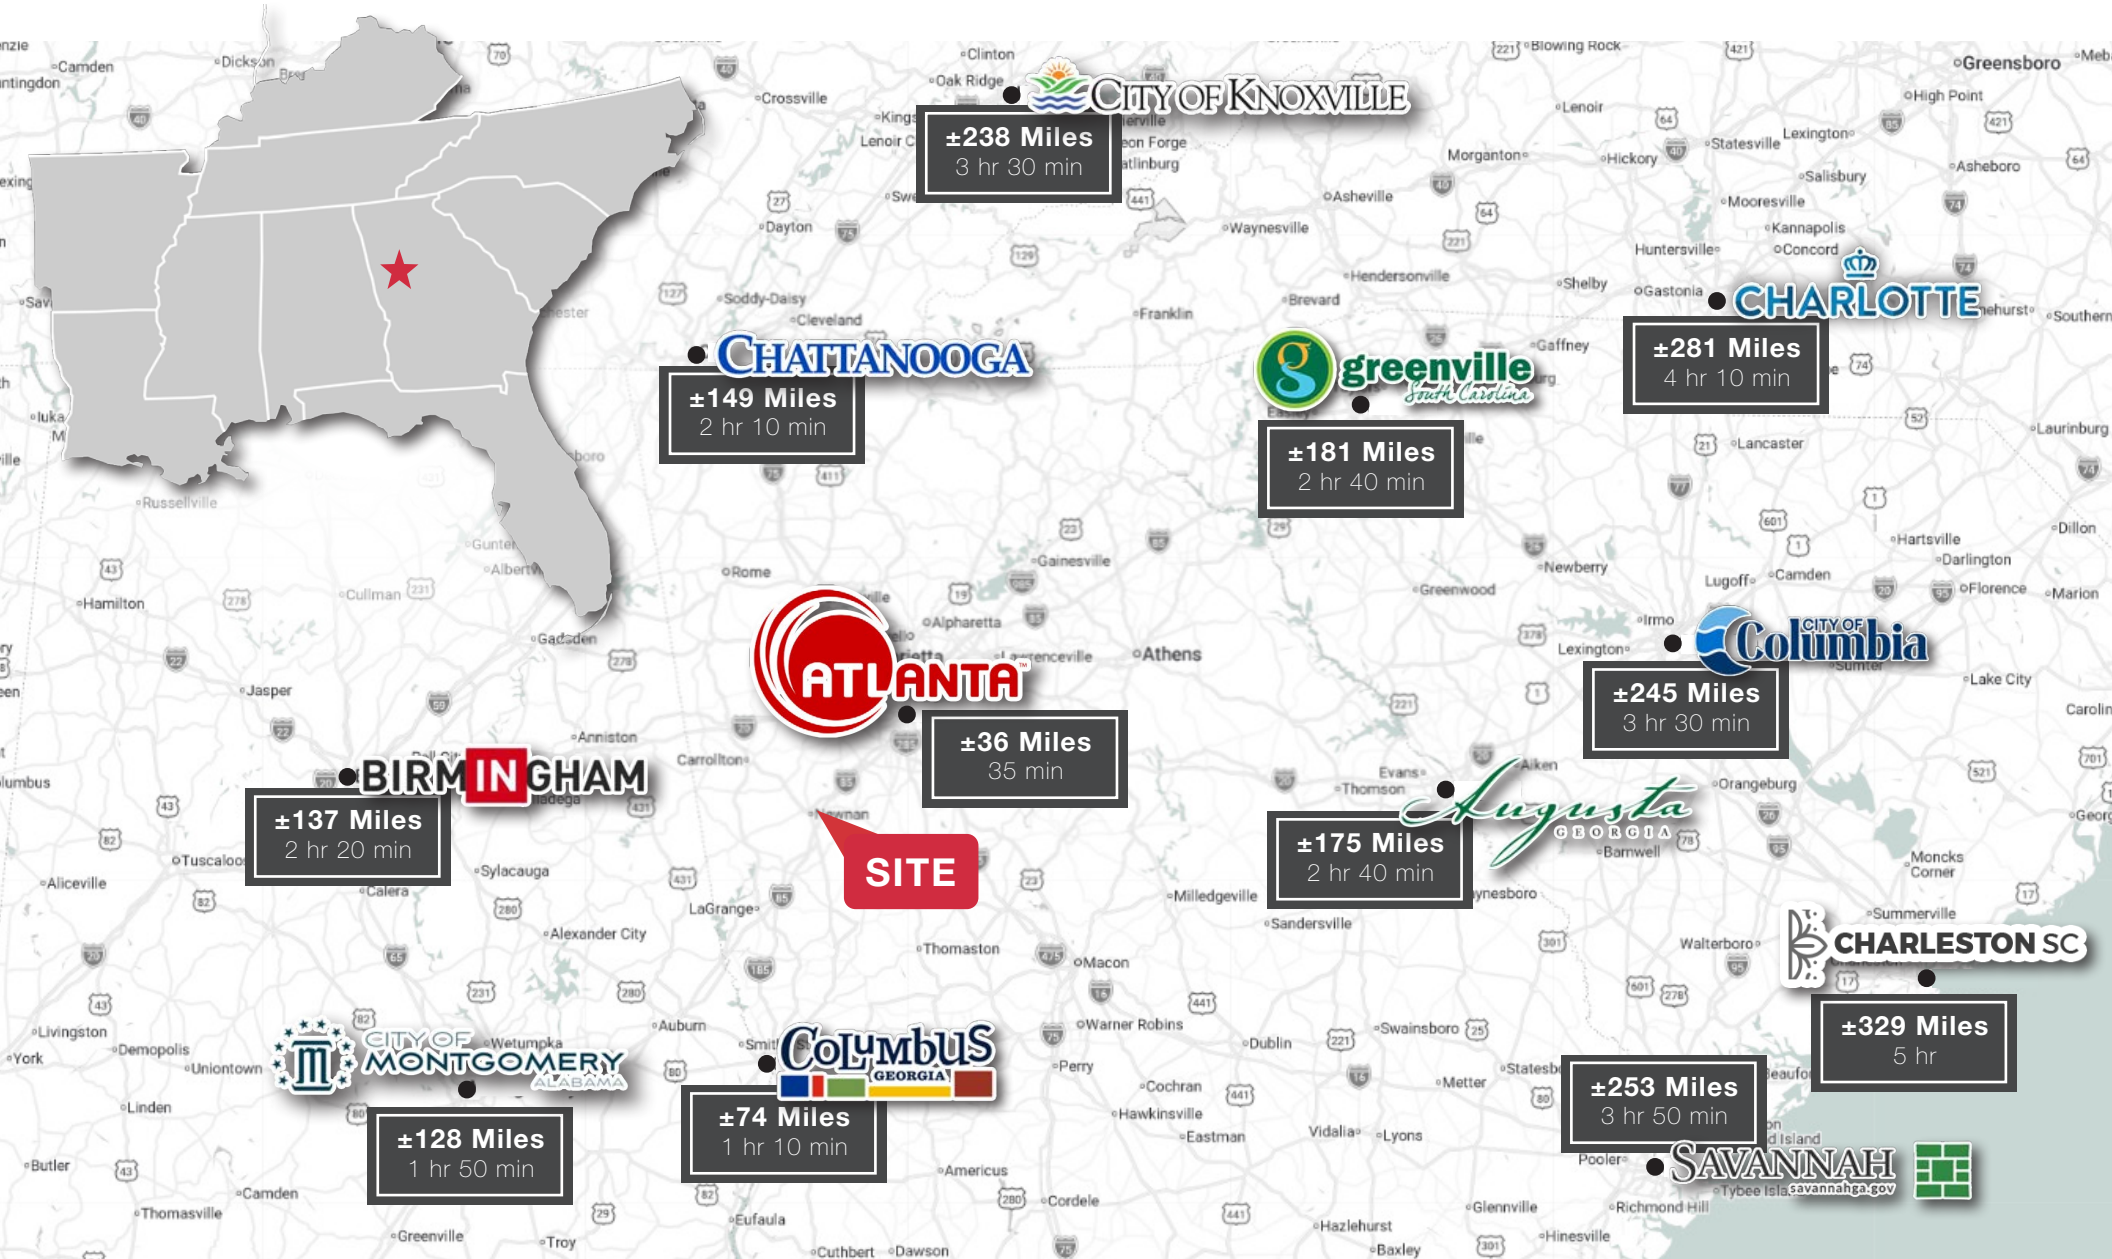

Growing Childcare Demand: The childcare industry continues to experience strong long-term growth, driven by rising workforce participation, dual-income households, and increased demand for early childhood education. The Southeast is the nation's fastest-growing childcare region.

Proximity to Expanding Healthcare Anchor: The school sits just minutes from Piedmont Newnan Hospital, which recently completed a $65 million, 80,000-square-foot South Tower expansion in May 2024, growing the campus to approximately 442,000 square feet and reinforcing its role as a major regional employer, all of which drives a built-in, recession-resistant enrollment pipeline of healthcare professionals seeking dependable early childhood care near their workplace.

Developing Market: Newnan has gained recognition as a prime destination and growing city, attracting major employers like Cargill, Yamaha Motor Manufacturing Corporation of America, Bonnell Aluminum, and the recent opening of Hitachi Construction Machinery Americas regional headquarters in 2024.

MARKET OVERVIEW

Atlanta, Georgia

#2 MOST EDUCATED CITIES IN AMERICA
FORBES, 2023

ATLANTA'S WORKFORCE

Atlanta is a leading hub for higher education, anchored by institutions like Georgia Institute of Technology, Emory University, and Georgia State University, along with satellite campuses for schools such as University of Georgia and Savannah College of Art and Design. This strong academic presence supports a highly educated population, with nearly 48% of residents over age 25 holding a bachelor's degree or higher. Ranked the #2 Most Educated City in America by Forbes in 2023, Atlanta continues to draw students and talent from across the country.

CULTURE & ATTRACTIONS

Atlanta boasts a thriving arts scene, anchored by the High Museum of Art and the historic Fox Theatre. Its booming film industry has earned the city its nickname "Hollywood of the South," driving major movie and television productions.

Atlanta offers a diverse range of attractions, including the world-renowned Georgia Aquarium, the interactive World of Coca-Cola, and the beautiful Atlanta Botanical Garden, making the city a vibrant destination for culture, nature, and family-friendly experiences.

Home to major professional teams and world-class venues, Atlanta is a premier sports destination. The city hosted Super Bowl LIII and will host matches during the 2026 FIFA World Cup, highlighting its global appeal.

TRANSPORTATION

Hartsfield–Jackson Atlanta International Airport, located in Atlanta, is the busiest airport in the world and one of the most important global transportation hubs. A two-hour flight connects roughly 80% of the U.S. population to the airport, which also provides access to nearly 90 international destinations across 50 countries. It supports more than 63,000 on-site jobs, making it Georgia's largest employer, and generates over $66 billion in annual economic impact. In 2025, it handled 106.3 million passengers following more than 108 million the prior year. The airport has also earned recognition from Airports Council International, including the 2024 Airport Service Quality Award for Best Airport Over 40 Million Passengers.

Atlanta is a major freight rail hub served by carriers like CSX Transportation and Norfolk Southern Railway, while also offering limited passenger service through Amtrak at Peachtree Station, connecting the city to key national routes such as the Crescent line.

Atlanta is a major highway hub where several interstates converge, including Interstate 75, Interstate 85, and Interstate 20. These routes connect Atlanta north to cities like Chattanooga and Charlotte, south to Macon and Florida, and west toward Birmingham and Texas. The city is also encircled by Interstate 285, which links key suburbs and supports regional mobility.
