PROPERTY HIGHLIGHTS

- Attractive Lease Structure: Brand-new 20-year Absolute Net sale-leaseback featuring four (4) additional 5-year renewal options and 2.0% annual rent increases, providing investors with long-term income stability, passive ownership, and consistent NOI growth throughout the lease term.
- Enhanced Credit Support: Lease is backed by both a corporate guaranty from 3 other Adora entities and a personal guaranty from the owner/operator, offering multiple layers of credit enhancement.
- Affluent Demographics: Located in one of metro Atlanta’s most desirable trade areas, featuring approximately 203,000 residents within a 5-mile radius and an average household income of $208,000, supporting strong demand for quality childcare services.
- Growing Childcare Demand: The childcare industry continues to experience strong long-term growth, driven by rising workforce participation, dual-income households, and increased demand for early childhood education. The Southeast is the nation’s fastest-growing childcare region.
- Corporate Employment Hub: Alpharetta is known as the “Technology City of the South,” home to approximately 900 technology companies and nearly 85,000 daily workers. Major employers include Fiserv, Hewlett Packard Enterprise, Equifax, Morgan Stanley, EY, Microsoft, McKesson, ADP, LexisNexis, and Verizon, signaling a high-income, dual-earner workforce that directly underpins childcare demand.
- Transformational Adjacent Redevelopment: Positioned directly on North Point Parkway within the North Point corridor, where the Alpharetta City Council approved in August 2026 the rezoning of the 99-acre North Point Mall site for a large-scale redevelopment expected to drive substantial daytime population, residential density, and childcare demand immediately surrounding the site.
- Dynamic Growth Market: Located in the Atlanta MSA, the nation’s sixth-largest metropolitan area with approximately 6.5 million residents, which added nearly 62,000 people in the year ending July 2025, the third-largest numeric population gain of any U.S. metro.

PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Submarket Map

Alpharetta is a fast-growing city about 25 miles north of Atlanta, known for its blend of upscale suburban living and a thriving business community. Often called the “Technology City of the South,” it is home to roughly 900 technology companies, including major operations for LexisNexis Risk Solutions, HPE, and ADP. Its location along the GA-400 corridor, officially designated Georgia’s “Technology Corridor” in 2022, supports continued growth in tech, finance, and healthcare. The area is also backed by strong schools, with Alpharetta High School ranked among Georgia’s top 20 by U.S. News & World Report, helping attract new residents and investment.

Just 1.3 miles away, Avalon offers residents a true live-work-play lifestyle in the heart of Alpharetta. It features 570,000+ SF of upscale shopping and dining, plus on-site luxury apartments, including Haven at Avalon and Veranda at Avalon — with rents averaging $2,400/month, well above the Alpharetta citywide average. Drawing 750,000 visitors per month, Avalon generates consistent, heavy foot traffic that reinforces the strength of the surrounding submarket.

Alpharetta’s approved 99-acre North Point Mall will bring 907,000 SF of retail, 750,000 SF of office, 1,385 residences, and a 20,000-seat NHL arena, adding significant daytime and residential density to the submarket.

MARKET OVERVIEW

Atlanta, Georgia

ATLANTA'S WORKFORCE

Atlanta is a leading hub for higher education, anchored by institutions like Georgia Institute of Technology, Emory University, and Georgia State University, along with satellite campuses for schools such as University of Georgia and Savannah College of Art and Design. This strong academic presence supports a highly educated population, with nearly 48% of residents over age 25 holding a bachelor's degree or higher. Ranked the #2 Most Educated City in America by Forbes in 2023, Atlanta continues to draw students and talent from across the country.

CULTURE & ATTRACTIONS

Atlanta boasts a thriving arts scene, anchored by the High Museum of Art and the historic Fox Theatre. Its booming film industry has earned the city its nickname "Hollywood of the South," driving major movie and television productions.

Atlanta offers a diverse range of attractions, including the world-renowned Georgia Aquarium, the interactive World of Coca-Cola, and the beautiful Atlanta Botanical Garden, making the city a vibrant destination for culture, nature, and family-friendly experiences.

Home to major professional teams and world-class venues, Atlanta is a premier sports destination. The city hosted Super Bowl LIII and hosted matches during the 2026 FIFA World Cup, highlighting its global appeal.

TRANSPORTATION

Hartsfield–Jackson Atlanta International Airport, located in Atlanta, is the busiest airport in the world and one of the most important global transportation hubs. A two-hour flight connects roughly 80% of the U.S. population to the airport, which also provides access to nearly 90 international destinations across 50 countries. It supports more than 63,000 on-site jobs, making it Georgia's largest employer, and generates over $66 billion in annual economic impact. Hartsfield-Jackson remained the world's busiest airport, handling 106.3 million passengers. The airport has also earned recognition from Airports Council International, including the 2024 Airport Service Quality Award for Best Airport Over 40 Million Passengers.

Atlanta is a major freight rail hub served by carriers like CSX Transportation and Norfolk Southern Railway, while also offering limited passenger service through Amtrak at Peachtree Station, connecting the city to key national routes such as the Crescent line.

Atlanta is a major highway hub where several interstates converge, including Interstate 75, Interstate 85, and Interstate 20. These routes connect Atlanta north to cities like Chattanooga and Charlotte, south to Macon and Florida, and west toward Birmingham and Texas. The city is also encircled by Interstate 285, which links key suburbs and supports regional mobility.
